In the name of God Amen,

In view of the uncertainty of this transitory life and the certainty of death I Wilson Brazzel do make and publish this as my last will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made.

First I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid, as soon after my death as possible, out of any means that I may die possessed of, or may come into the hands of my Executor.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my dear beloved wife, Martha Brazzel all my tract of land lying on the Wolf Branch of Garretts Creek in Dickson county Tennessee containing two hundred and two acres known as the Wilkins tract, to be sold and the proceeds of said sale to be appropriated to the use and benefit of my wife her natural life or widowhood, and if she marry then to be equally divided between her and my two children John Riley and William Franklin Brazzel.

Thirdly my desire is that all my perishable property be sold except my wearing apparel, and given to my dear wife above mentioned during her natural life or widow-hood and if she marries then to be equally divided between her and my two children above mentioned Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint George Evans my Executor In witness whereof I do to this my will, Set my hand and seal this 4th day of January 1864
