Dr. Enoch Ferrell Undergoes Operation

Dr. T. E. Ferrell departed Monday for Fort Leonard Wood, following a message from his daughter, Mrs. E. E. Ferrell, to be near her son, Dr. T. E. Ferrell, Jr., who was to undergo an operation.

Word came Tuesday that the doctor had undergone the operation, but was still desperately ill.

KATHRYN WALKER MARRIED

Mrs. Roy Walker is our authority for the above headline.

Miss Kathryn Walker and John Paul Graham were married August 29 at Lincoln, Neb., where the groom is stationed as a member of the air corps of the U. S. Army.

Kathryn grew to young womanhood right here in these hills—attended the local high school—was highly popular with the younger set—went to Lincoln to work—met young man—married.

We extend congratulations and all good wishes.

HEUER REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Graves and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Graves attended the Heuer reunion at the New Hope church near Peace Valley Sunday.

Nearly a hundred of the Heuer relatives were present.

The Rev. Oliver Reed delivered the sermon at the New Hope church on the occasion.

BEAUTIFUL PICTURE IS OFFERED BY LEVER BROS.

A full color 12 by 15 Swan baby picture, with print frame, is being offered free by the Lever Bros. company, it is announced in a large advertisement on page 8 of this issue.

Since the makers of new Antiseptic Sneeze Rinso announced one of the latest triumphs of science the removal of 98% of irritating soap dust from their product, Ketchum's, have capitalized on the good news by offering the amazing new Rinso in generous quantities.

Mountain View dealers are now featuring Rinso on two box special, according to the announcement in the ad.

"Something new has been added." The new 1942 Lifebuoy with its new ingredient, giving a new vanishing scent, same protective lather, and from head to toe always B.O. Lever dealers are now offering this new and better than ever Lifebuoy.

The makers of Lifebuoy and Antiseptic Sneeze Rinso also call attention to housewives to their new Swan soap. The really first new white floating soap since the gay nineties, now on display at your grocers. According to one housewife who tried this new floating soap, "Swan is harder, smoother, finer grained," it lathers like lightning, makes such a fine suds that laughs at hard water and breaks into smooth bars. Swan looks different, smells different, acts differently from any other cake of soap.

Another fine Lever Bros. product being featured is Silver Dust, a safe sudsing soap for anything washable. In addition to receiving your full value for every penny you receive a 12 by 15 inch cotton face cloth inside for every package of Silver Dust.

MARY CALLAHAN THOMASSON

Mary Callahan Thomasson was born July 3, 1856, in Castle Barr, Ireland, and passed away September 2, 1942, at the age of 86 years, one month and 29 days.

At the age of 17 she came with her parents to the United States and settled in Minnesota, where in 1876 she was united in marriage to Austin Joseph Thomasson, who preceded her in death March 1, 1916. To this union ten children were born, five of whom survive. They are three daughters: Anna Green, Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Mrs. Sadie Woodworth, Los Angeles, Calif.; and two sons: Joe Thomasson, Slavens, Okla.; and Frank Thomasson of Doniphan, with whom she had made her home for the past 17 years. Fourteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren also survive.

MARRIED

Mrs. Florin Weaver and Mr. Claude Brooks were united in marriage at the home of Justice of the Peace R. L. Derks Saturday, September 6.

SPANISH WAR AUXILIARIES INSPECTED BY DEPT. PRES.

Sunday, Sept. 6, the Auxiliaries of the Spanish War Veterans from Cabool, West Plains and Mountain View met together for the purpose of being inspected by the department president, Mrs. Maude Holmes, of St. Louis.

After a covered dish dinner was served to both the Comrades and Auxiliary members, the business session was held. Visitors from out of town were Capt. W. Darnell and Mrs. Durnell, Cabool; Mr. and Mrs. Roush, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Stompan and Mrs. Mrs. Bazzard, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hodge, West Plains; Mr. and Mrs. Ames and Mrs. Mrs. Empsler, Pomona; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conwell, Cabool; Capt. Darnell in the State Department Commander of the United States Spanish War Veterans.

MRS. LARRY HOGAN IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. J. B. Trambarger returned Friday from Springfield, where she spent a week at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Larry Hogan, who recently underwent a serious operation in the St. John's Hospital.

Mrs. Hogan appears to be on the road to recovery. Her many friends in this community will be pleased to know she is regaining her health.

JUDGE LYON JOINS THE EQUESTRIANS

R. W. Lyon purchased Rex, the high stepping riding horse owned by Claude Brooks. This is the horse that was prize winner of the horse show recently held at Willow Springs.

You should have seen the Judge giving the horse a try-out yesterday in the north end of town. It has been thirty-five years since the Judge has been astride any leather and although both the horse and the Judge came back together it was a question which one was the most shaken up.

Judge Lyon says he will indulge in several farasals on his farm before making his grand premiere in the saddle down town.

Anyway, Rex will have a fine home as everything on Sunrise Mountain Farm is always good fat and well cared for.

The purchase of a horse by the Judge is just a little insurance that he can get back and forth from the farm when the tire situation finally blows up entirely.

LUTHER SMOTHERMAN ILL

The many friends of Luther Smotherman will regret to learn that he is quite seriously ill.

Mr. Smotherman has been in bed in health for several months. He seems to have taken a turn for the worse the latter part of last week.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

The September 5 edition of the Springfield Daily News carries the following interesting caption, "Marriage License."

"Thomas Howard Flood, 21, and Rose Shirley Hinrichsen, 22, both of Springfield.

Ho—ham—how time does skip along. It seems only yesterday that Howard squirmed through his first algebra lesson. It seems only an hour ago that he proudly displayed his first tennis racket—price $1.00.

O well, according to statistics all the married people in the world are men anyway.

New Ponds Dug In This Section

Fred Jenkins has been working several months with a pond digging crew. He states that over 400 ponds have been dug in Goldsberry and adjoining townships. From August 6 to September 3 alone, 114 ponds were dug.

The work is done with big, powerful machinery which jacks up the earth and builds a dam at an incredible speed. A good-sized farm pond can be made in three or four hours.

At present the equipment is over in the edge of Hutton Valley township.

MARRIED

Mrs. Florin Weaver and Mr. Claude Brooks were united in marriage at the home of Justice of the Peace R. L. Derks Saturday, September 6.

Mountain View School News

The newspaper staff has been organized for this school year and the following group has been chosen: Editor-in-chief—Mildred DeBard; Assistant Editor—Wanda Rogness; Reporters—Lucille Davis, Goldie Becker, Esther Hunt, Thelma LeBaron, Wanda Sharp, and Esther Williams.

The School News will be published in the Mountain View Standard, beginning next week.

BILLIE MOORE INJURED

Billie Moore, 11, who lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moore, on route one, sustained a broken right leg Sunday. The break was just below the knee.

Billie and some other boys were on their way home from church in a pickup truck which ran off the highway. Billie was thrown out. The broken bone in his leg protruded through the flesh, causing a six-inch tear in his tissues. The boy also suffered a wound on the right side of his head.

He was taken at once to the Christa Hogan Hospital for treatment.

DR. COTTINGHAM IMPROVING

Dr. W. W. Cottingham, who was taken to Rolla seriously ill on July 7, continues to improve, but still unable to resume his medical practice here.

He and Mrs. Cottingham have been visiting in the home of their son in Rolla and St. James during his illness and convalescence. They are expected home about October first.

SON OF STANDARD'S FOUNDER VISITS OLD HOME TOWN

D. L. Watson, whose father founded the Standard way back at the break of the century, dropped in on Saturday for a chat with the editor.

Mr. Watson, who is a traveling salesman for a St. Louis firm, and his sister, Miss Grace Watson, who is employed in a bank in Beggs, Okla., spent the week-end here.

TRASK CLUB REPORT

For the third time the Colonial Dames have congregated at that comfortable, white house in Sims Valley and had a most wonderful time. Everyone will agree with me there. The hostesses is always happy and congenial no matter how many troubles she may have on her mind. I think the fear she will run out of time is the greatest.

The morning of the second of Sept. 8 members and three visitors were present. They were Mrs. Joe DeWitt, Mrs. E. J. McCormick, Mrs. Geo. Faussett, Mrs. Arza Ogde, Mrs. H. I. Robbins, Mrs. Geo. Schieler, Mrs. W. O. LaBonte and the hostesses. The visitors were Mr. Will Ogde, Mrs. Cochran and Mr. Jake Pope.

A busy morning was spent cutting out surgical gowns for the Trask Loan Achievement Day. Mrs. Dowell represented that work and with her helpers. Fourteen were ready to be put together when the program for the day started.

Dinner was a happy occasion, good bread and dairy butter, fried chicken, mulligan stew, salads, cobblers, fluffy mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, pie, cake, and a good variety of good cold cream milk loaded the table down. Surely a good variety for 10 people to choose from. "O people of the Ozarks won't have to go hungry if they have in ambition to work hard even if it be a food shortage as the Backwoods Vaughn Reporters is predicting for 1943. Most everything sold on the table can be grown on the farm, and with competent cooks to convert them into tasty dishes there is nothing to fear along that line if we do our part.

Mrs. Arza Ogde gave a study on Art which was enjoyed by all. Her content was about flowers. Many interesting questions were asked about some of our Missouri flowers; but none got the prize except Mrs. McCormick from Nebraska. The prize was a small painting by Mrs. Ogde.

The next meeting will be at Mrs. Thomas Stapleton's on Sept. 15.

"COURTSHIP OF ANDY HARDY" COMING TO CASTLE THEATRE

"The Courtship of Andy Hardy" is one of the most eagerly-awaited motion pictures on the market. Each Hardy picture achieves this distinction. No other films have so loyal a following. "What will Andy Hardy do next?" is an important national question.

This picture answers it in a continuation of the adventures of America's number one family. It is destined also to serve another purpose for it eliminates a position of importance among other Andy Hardy sweethearts, Donna Reed. As the latest girl in Andy's life, she wins a role coveted by every young actress in Hollywood. She follows a trail blazed before her by Lana Turner, Judy Garland, Kathryn Grayson and others, all of whom bounded up the screen ladder after roles in the Hardy films.

The picture, replete with lovable Hardy humor, marks a return to lighter vein from the drama of Andy's New York experiences in the preceding Hardy film. Included also is another "man to man" talk which teaches Andy, and all growing youngsters, another invaluable lesson.

Mickey Rooney has some to identify himself pretty closely with the screen personality he has created, Andy Hardy, until now that they are together in their twelfth picture, "The Courtship of Andy Hardy." We understand each other well. The public thinks of them as one, too, for a lot of Mickey Rooney's fan mail comes addressed to Andy Hardy.

We all love Mickey Rooney as Andy Hardy, there are the other members of the Hardy family: Lewiston Stone as Judge Hardy; Fay Holden; Cecilia Parker, Sara Haden and Ann Rutherford, and the new sweetheart, Donna Reed.

"The Courtship of Andy Hardy" will be shown at the Castle Theatre Sunday and Monday, September 13 and 14.

THE FALL OF THE OLD PORCH

Around three o'clock Monday morning the porch on the Cottage Hotel broke loose from its moorings and crashed to the sidewalk.

The porch, which was none too stable anyway, gave way under the pressure of a sudden gust of wind, which puffed out of nowhere and caught the steeple full blast.

Mr. Hatfield said he thought an 800 lb. safe on the village. If the porch had fallen during the day it is almost certain someone would have been scalped.

Splendid Suggestion

Arthur Duncan was in the Standard office Monday morning with the suggestion that Mountain View hold a horse show.

It seems that Arthur and some other Backwoods non-James Enoch and Dwayne; Mr. and Mrs. Selma Dunca, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Justin and son, Henry; Mrs. Eugene Willbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb and son, Rommie; Mrs. and Mrs. Phil Eisenger, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Karnes, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hearn, Mrs. Jack Smotherman, Marion Smotherman, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Webb and son, Roger; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Heavins, Beth Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Holden and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Webb, Harold Guiley, Bertha Brown, Stanley Prow and family, Willie Lee and family, Wayne Holden, Ovee Lee, Mrs. Rebi Carr and sons, Margie Smotherman, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smotherman.

MRS. JOHN ADAMSKE DIES

Dr. H. E. Ferrell received a letter telling of the death of Mrs. John Adamske in the hospital at Blue Jack, Oklahoma after a lingering illness of two years.

The Adamske family lived in the Shady Grove community a number of years before moving to Oklahoma about 17 years ago. Their many friends will be sorry to hear of Mrs. Adamske's death.

DIED

John Duncan received word Monday that his late sister, Mrs. Vernice Skiles, of Captain, New Mexico, died Sunday night.

The body will be brought here for burial. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

BEHIND THE EIGHT BALL

It's the easiest thing in the world for a person to make himself believe anything he wishes to believe.

To illustrate the point, I have convinced myself that the theological, economic and political ideas to which we cling are the result of some sort of self-selling process which takes place in our minds.

I am so completely sold on that proposition, I would require little short of a miracle to jar the idea loose from my mental processes. (If any.)

We are all pretty thoroughly convinced that we know it all. But to complicate matters we at the same time disclaim any tendency toward intolerance. Moreover, we succeed, pretty well, in making ourselves believe that we are open-minded, tolerant and subject to conviction.

Now the very reverse is true. People—taken by and large—are grossly and malignantly intolerant. I once heard a person who claimed a reason: "I am a Christian virtue, I denounce those who differed politically as 'fools.'"

Down deep in our hearts we have small respect for the other fellow's convictions unless they agree pretty much with our own preconceived ideas.

I am not writing this in any sort of detached way, for I know, without question or cavil, that I am as intolerant as any "soot" in my way as anyone.

When I say, "We are intolerant in our attitudes," I am talking in everybody I know or ever expect to know. We all love power. Rooney as Andy Hardy, there are the other members of the Hardy family: Lewiston Stone as Judge Hardy; Fay Holden; Cecilia Parker, Sara Haden and Ann Rutherford, and the new sweetheart, Donna Reed.

"The Courtship of Andy Hardy" will be shown at the Castle Theatre Sunday and Monday, September 13 and 14.

30th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A group of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Webb of Teresita Sunday, August 31, to help celebrate the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Webb.

Those who enjoyed the beautiful dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Duncan, Mrs. James Enoch and Dwayne; Mr. and Mrs. Selma Dunca, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Justin and son, Henry; Mrs. Eugene Willbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb and son, Rommie; Mrs. and Mrs. Phil Eisenger, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Karnes, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hearn, Mrs. Jack Smotherman, Marion Smotherman, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Webb and son, Roger; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Heavins, Beth Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Holden and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Webb, Harold Guiley, Bertha Brown, Stanley Prow and family, Willie Lee and family, Wayne Holden, Ovee Lee, Mrs. Rebi Carr and sons, Margie Smotherman, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smotherman.

WINNICHSEN—FLOOD

Miss Rose Shirley Hinrichsen and Thomas Howard Flood were married Tuesday evening, September 8, at the Grace Methodist Church in Springfield, with the pastor of the church officiating.

Both the bride and groom were members of the graduating class at Southwest Teachers College this summer, the former graduating with high honors. She will teach English in the Houston High School this winter.

Howard is a Mountain View boy. He received all his elementary and high school education in the local schools, and in the graduating class of 1938. He is now employed in Springfield, but expects soon to be inducted into the army.

W. S. C. S. MET FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church held their regular September meeting at the country home of Mrs. W. F. McCall on Friday afternoon, September 4.

Mrs. Surbaugh led the lesson study on the call to service. Others who took part in the scripture reading and lesson discussion were Mrs. Theron Garrett, Mrs. DeLong and Mrs. Sparks.

A business and social hour followed the lesson period. Mrs. Wattle won the prize for having the largest score in the contests. A kitchen shower was presented to the bride, Mrs. Gene Willbanks, whose marriage last December has only recently been announced. She received many very useful articles for the kitchen.

Delicious refreshments were served to Messadams Parks, DeLong, Flood, Sparks, Duncan, Humphrey, Becker, Surbaugh, Groon, Coval, Garrett, Willbanks, Webb, Cleveland, Wattle, Metcalf and Miss Wilma Loyd.

Mrs. Gum Talks to Son in Hawaii

Wednesday morning, September 2, Mrs. Gum said it was well worth the telephone to receive a long distance call. She was naturally alarmed but was delighted when she heard the voice of her 18 year old son, Charles Gum, who is located on Oahu Island with the army.

The voice was received here very clearly. It came across the ocean by radio and was picked up in San Francisco and sent from there to Mountain View over the regular telephone circuit.

Mrs. Gum said they talked six minutes and at the conclusion of their conversation the boy said "Good night." The cost was $28.05, had the talk been the usual three minutes the cost would have been about $13.00 but Mrs. Gum said it was well worth the cost. It was the longest call ever handled through the local telephone office.

Mrs. Gum spent last summer near Houlton, Texas to be near her son while he was taking his basic training.

THOMAS NEWELL WALKER

Thomas Newell Walker was born in Hickman County, Tenn., Jan. 29, 1858. He came to Missouri with his parents at the age of 14 years. They took up their home near Walker's Chapel, where he grew into manhood. He was among the pioneer farmers who settled this part of the country.

He was married to Phoebe Tennessee in which year 1877. To this union 11 children were born, four of whom died in infancy. The seven surviving children are Mrs. Della Lommon of Lincoln, California; Mrs. Ida Jones of Mountain View; Neal Walker of Lawton, Okla.; Luther Walker of Gainesville, Florida; Earl Walker of Mountain View; Mrs. Lena Yockey of Long Beach, California.

Uncle Tom Walker, as he was known throughout the country, was converted and joined the Methodist Church in 1875, in which faith he remained throughout his life until God called him to his eternal home September 5, 1942, at the age of 84 years, seven months and seven days. He will be greatly missed by his children, other relatives and many friends as he had spent most of his life in this community and was known the country over.
