

... shall become effecn approved by a three-) vote of the electors of voting on such question. question shall be sub-to the electors at a lection called at the rethe grantee, the grantee y the cost thereof and Council may, in its n, require a deposit of able sum to be made e City Treasurer as a to the holding of such election. No exclusive e shall be granted, and hise shall be granted for exceeding thirty (30) n 77. THE MIS and CON-S. Franchise shall be upon such terms and ns as the City Council termine, which shall be in the Ordinance grant-h franchise. The franay provide that the rules ulations applicable to the the quality of product rates charged therefor, as fixed by the Michiblic Service Commission other state authority as ave jurisdiction of the matter.

n 78. REVOCABLE
TS. Temporary permits lic utilities, revocable at e at the will of the Coun-y be granted by the Coun-resolution on such terms ditions as it shall deter-provided that such per-all in no event be con-to be franchises or nents to franchises.

at the proposed Charter ment be submitted to the s of the City of Croswell regular City election to l on Monday, the 1st day il, 1963, for adoption or n.

at said proposed Charter ment shall be submitted Governor of this State for roval.

at the City Clerk cause a f this Resolution to be ed in the Sanilac County onian as a part of the s of this meeting, further,

Jill Ann Dundas

Jill Ann Dundas, 2½ months, of Ann Arbor, died Sunday in St.
Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Jill was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dundas, 519 Fourth Street, Ann Arbor. She was born Nov. 3, 1962.

She is survived by her parents, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. Dawson, Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. William Dundas, Ann Arbor, and her great grandfather, David Tyson, Lexington, and a number of aunts and uncles.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday. Rev. Earl Geer, pastor of Lexington Methodist Church, officiated. Burial was in Lexington Cemetery.

Mrs. Mae E. Tyson

Mrs. Mae E. Tyson, 83, of 5654 Main Street, Lexington, died in the family home Monday after a short illness.

Mrs. Tyson was born Feb. 6, 1879 in Lebanon, Mo., and was married to Mr. Tyson in 1902.
She was a resident of Lexington 20 years and was a member of the Lexington Methodist Church and past president of the WSCS.

She is survived by her husband, David Tyson; four daughters, Mrs. Harold N. Dawson, Lexington, Mrs. Eugene Manning and Miss Bessie Tyson, both of Danville, Mich., and Mrs. John P. Lewis, Cincinnati, O.; a sister, Mrs. Maude Admire, Lebanon, Mo.; a brother, Fred Jolley, Loveland, Colo.; 10 grandchildren, four great grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Thursday. Rev. Earl Geer officiated. Burial was in Hayward Cemetery, Worth Township.

Mrs. David Quail

Mrs. Lillie Blanche Quail, 90, died in a Croswell nursing home Tuesday evening, Jan. 15, after a long illness.

She was born Sept. 4, 1872, in Ohio. She was the daughter of ... other child hea Every year, mor deaths througho States are cause prenatal develop year, more than million babies s significant defect

To bring exper children all over National Founda
Dimes—which h paralytic polio porting the deve Salk and Sabin has a treatment under way.

Also in 1958,
Dimes organiza
a program in arthritis — equ
and shrugged of as an inevitab aging, despite th severest form s and young adul ing frequency.

This year, Ma will proudly r neighbors that network of Ma financed study centers for bir arthritis is oper capacity. Nearly are now open across the coun number that we just a year ago beginning of th visioned.

In addition,
tory centers are

Romney Sailing w

By ELMER
Secretary, Michiga

SMOOTH S

The opening of th ature, marked by both houses for moderate Republic well for Gov. Ge

In the Senate, r caucus leader Stanl Ann Arbor, has ind publican group wi behind the Govern

Even Sen. Joh
Smeekens, Coldwat