

Phyllis Wesley (Walker) Easton

Phyllis Wesley (Walker) Easton was born February 16, 1922 to Earl Theodore Walker and Grace Milicene (Campbell) Walker in Howell County, Missouri. She took a chariot ride to Glory on November 28, 2008, at the age of 86 years, 9 months, and 12 days. She was the third of ten children and the first to graduate from high school.

She was married to Herbert Louis "Buster" Easton on her 19th birthday in 1941, in West Plains, Missouri. To this marriage was born four daughters: Janis Irene, Bethel Elaine, Barbara Lynn, and Brenda Louise.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Earl and Grace Walker; infant daughter Janis; husband, Buster Easton; one sister, Mary Wells; one brother, Donald Walker; and two brothers-in-law, Elmer Wells and Monk Smith.

She is survived by her daughters, Bethel Long and husband, Ron, Barbara Jester and husband, Phil, and Brenda Fuller and husband, Jeff; her grandchildren, Tami Long Durr, Matt Jester, Heather Long Miliken, Shannon Jester Brown, Jenny Long Fox, Alex (Buster Long) Easton, Brad Jester, Richie Jester, Steven Fuller, and Shae Fuller Cooper, together with their spouses; 26 great grandchildren; five brothers and their spouses, Jack Walker and wife, Lola, Bill Walker and wife, Lou, Max Walker and wife, Kay, Leon Walker and wife, Ozella, Paul

Walker and wife, Millie; two sisters, Doyne Smith and Irene Hanson and husband, Carroll; and a host of nieces and nephews, extended family and friends.

She was a member of First Christian Church of Mountain View. She taught Sunday School for much of her life and was dedicated to the youth until the day she died. She also sang in the choir. She attended many churches throughout the years and was faithful, wherever she lived, to attend with her family (from Illinois to California) and served the Lord faithfully.

She ran a tax service in Mountain View with Buster after moving back "home". She was content to live in a cabin in a logging camp or a home in Southern California as long as she had her family with her. She opened her home to many family and friends through her life.

She loved life, working outside, digging in the dirt, planting flowers and gardens, raking leaves, watching sunsets and sunrises, birds and animals. She loved the mountains and the ocean and everything in between. She had few possessions in this world, but respected and took care of what she had. She loved serving Lord and praying for her family. She never visited foreign fields or preach formal sermons. She never sent fortunes to help the poor or feed the hungry, but she lived her life in such a way that others were encouraged and fed and housed whenever she had the opportunity to serve. We miss her already but we know Heaven is richer with her presence.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, December 1, 2008 at Mountain View Christian Church with Pastor Brian Ingalls, Ron Long, and Phil Jester officiating. Interment was in Center Hill Cemetery, Mountain View, Missouri under the direction of Yarber Mortuary, Mountain View.
