

and lottery, was in town yesterday.

An Insolvent Farmer.

W. K. Walker, a farmer who lives a few miles from this city, on the Copperopolis road, was on Saturday last adjudged insolvent. He began business in 1867 with $1,500. His property consists of real estate, $43,200; personal property, $1,414; homestead, $4,500; exempt property, $1,299; one horse attached by Smith & Wright, $299. Following is a list of his creditors: Andrew Blossom, $260; Campbell & Laug, $20; Ed. Hickman, $40; J. H. Condit, $25; William P. Miller, $50; E. C. Arnold, $550; note signed by George Jack; John Milan, $200; Smith & Wright, $300; Doak & Dunning, $325; B. Mahoney, $125; Sperry & Co., $200; Simpson & Gray, $115; W. H. Snow, $50; N. Hilke, $100; Robert Rowe, $40; James Gillis, $300; Stockton Savings and Loan Society, $35,980, secured by trust deed to Fred. M. West and L. U. Shippee; woman, name unknown, $300; Miss Rosa Woods, $100; Rosenbaum & Crawford, $140; Austrian, name unknown, $50.

Real Estate Transfers

Clipped By:

janis_gilmore
Sat, Nov 6, 2021